CASE NUMBER: 23-CR-188

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You shall report to the probation office in the district to which you are released within 72 hours of your release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency as reasonably directed by the Court or probation officer.
- 2. You shall not leave the State of Wisconsin or supervising judicial district without permission of the court or probation officer.
- 3. You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, subject to your Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination, and follow the reasonable instructions of the probation officer.
- 4. You shall use your best efforts to find and hold lawful employment, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons (e.g., childcare, eldercare, disability, age, or serious health condition).
- 5. You shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in your place of residence or employment. When such notification is not possible, you shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
- 6. You shall not knowingly go to places or enter buildings where controlled substances are unlawfully sold, used, distributed, or administered.
- 7. You shall not associate with any persons known by you to be engaged or planning to be engaged in criminal activity. "Associate," as used here, means reside with or regularly socialize with such person.
- 8. You shall permit a probation officer to visit you at reasonable times at home and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.
- 9. You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
- 10. You shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant shall have no contact with the victim (including letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, visits, or any contact through a third party) without prior written consent of his supervising probation officer.
- 2. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, office, papers, computers, other electronic communications or data storage devices, or media, to a search conducted by the United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of their release and that the areas to be searched may contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
- 3. The defendant shall participate in the Cognitive Intervention Program, if available, and under the guidance and supervision of his supervising probation officer.
- 4. The defendant is to participate in a program of testing to include not more than six urinalysis tests per month and residential or outpatient treatment for drug and alcohol abuse, as approved by the supervising probation officer, until such time as he or she is released from such program. The defendant shall pay the cost of this program under the guidance and supervision of the supervising probation officer. The defendant is to refrain from use of all alcoholic beverages throughout the supervised release term.
- 5. The defendant is to pay restitution at a rate of not less than $100.00 per month. The defendant will also apply 100 percent of any annual federal and/or state income tax refunds(s) toward payment of any restitution and fine balance. The defendant shall not change exemptions claimed for either federal or state income tax purposes without prior notice to his supervising g probation officer.
- 6. The defendant is to provide access to all financial information requested by his supervising probation officer including, but not limited to, copies of all federal and state income tax returns. All tax returns shall be filed in a timely manner. The defendant shall also submit monthly financial reports to his supervising probation officer. After the defendant's court ordered financial obligations have been satisfied, this condition is no longer in effect.
- 7. The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program and shall take any and all prescribed medications as directed by the treatment provider and participate in any psychological/psychiatric evaluation(s) and counseling as approved by his supervising probation officer. The defendant shall pay the cost of such treatment under the guidance and supervision of his supervising probation officer.
- 8. The defendant shall submit to GPS monitoring for the duration of his term of supervision and adhere to the program rules and policies of said program, until such time the Court determines this condition is no longer warranted. If violations occur, the defendant may be placed in lock down status (restricted to his residence at all times) for one or more days with Court approval. During the monitoring period, and under the guidance of the probation officer, the defendant shall wear a Location Monitoring device, shall follow Location Monitoring procedures as approved by his probation officer, and shall adhere to any residential or proximity limitations and/or restrictions meant to limit his physical access to the victim of this offense. The defendant shall pay the cost of this program under the guidance and supervision of his supervising probation officer.
